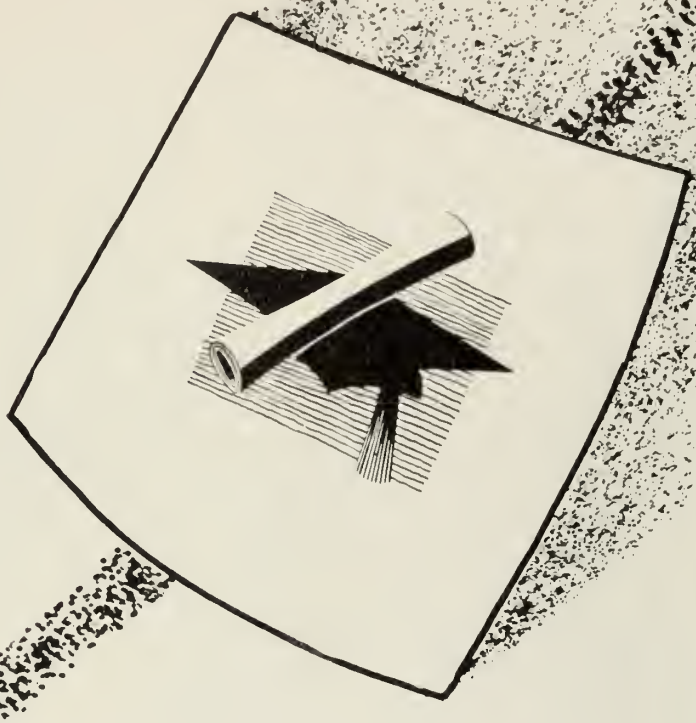
FOREWORD



Look not into the Past . . . It comes not again

. . . Wisely improve the Present . . . It is thine

. . . Go forth to meet the shadowy future without fear, and a manly heart.

DEDICATION

MISS MARION SULLIVAN

Every graduating class remembers some person who has been a faithful friend and a wise counsel to them through the years. Our class is no exception; one teacher stands out in our minds. She has served us through our four years of high school as teacher, sponsor, and guide. Both in her teaching of English, and in her faithful services as class advisor and Honor Society sponsor, she has helped to direct us towards a successful life. She has understood our problems, listened to our complaints, and inspired us with confidence.

In the dedication of this yearbook, we, the Class of 1958, wish to show our appreciation to you, Miss Sullivan, for your continued and patient assistance through our high school days.

CLASS PROPHECY

"TOAST OF THE TESSAHOC"

The time is 8 o'clock, Sunday night, June 7, 1972, and you are tuned in to channel WCHS-TV. This is the "Toast of the Tessahoc," starring syndicated punster and celebrated emcee, Richard Conant, with a host of stars including Tom "Tennessee Ernie" Keefe, Sue "Marguerite Piazzi" Nowack, choreographer Glori Breining, cinema actress Wendy Walton, and pro-football halfback Greg Koval, to name only a few. And here is our master of ceremonies now:

"Good evening, friends. We have a r-r-really big show for you tonight! But first I want you to meet some of the folks in our audience. To the right we have a team of scientists who have just succeeded in sending to the moon a rocket ship manned by a chimpanzee. Stand up and take a bow, Professors Ingram, Bates, Vanderweil, and Towle. Next to them, who just returned from a trip to India, is our ambassador Mary Humphreys. And a little farther back, we are honored to have with us, straight from the Indianapolis Speedway, the winner of this year's race, Pete Wood, who drove a souped-up Campbell Special with a Fig carburator and a Dolan Differential. His pit helper, Bill Kelsch, is also here with him.

"First on the agenda is a word from our sponsor. Take it away, Beverly Ferreira."

"Thank you, Dick. This part of the show is brought to you by "Pompeo's

Pizza Pie," found in all Kane's super-duper markets, and "Heather's Hats," sold exclusively at "Parson's Salon, Fifth Avenue."

"Ladies and Gentlemen, our first guest tonight is Gail Neff, producer of the Wideway hit "Sohier Haven" co-starring "Slinky" Lincoln and Larry Figueiredo. She has brought with her four danseuses from her corps de ballet: Virginia Hunt, Kay Signorelli, Ann Roy, and Majorie Silvia.

"We shall see them perform after a few more introduction from our audience.

"Our camera is focused upon some internationally famous fashion designers: Vivian Rogers, Dianne Falconer, and Eunice Silvia. They are fashioning the inaugural gown for our newly-elected Governor of Massachusetts, Katherine Barrett, whose worthy council members, Roberta Lawson and Carol Vaughan, are also with us tonight. Yes, they say it's a woman's world!

"We also have some professional men here tonight: Dr. Macdonald, who has just succeeded in pulling a tooth from a giant gorilla, and his assistant, Miss Howe. Seated beside him is Dr. Hansen and his assistant, Miss Janet Lincoln. Please take a bow, ladies and gentlemen.

In the next row we have our distinguished Miss Mulcahy, head of the Mathematics Department at Harvard. Grace Bates, editor of the "Cohasset Chronicle," and her feature writer, Rita Antoine, complete our introductions.

"And now, on with the show . . ."
